Proclamation

WHEREAS, the City of Norfolk will host the 32nd Annual Norfolk Senior Olympics May 11-14, 2015 on the campus of Old Dominion University, with the Opening Ceremony and Parade of Athletes celebrated on May 13, 2015; and

WHEREAS, the Norfolk Senior Olympics offers thirty competitive events, such as track and field, tennis, softball toss, and swimming for over 400 Hampton Roads seniors age 50 and better; and

WHEREAS, Senior Olympians value fitness as a lifestyle and dedicate themselves to promoting a greater quality of life by staying healthy, active and fit; and

WHEREAS, residents of Hampton Roads, senior citizen organizations, healthcare professionals, and senior-serving businesses unite at this symbolic event to show the world that having an active, productive life while aging is a reality;

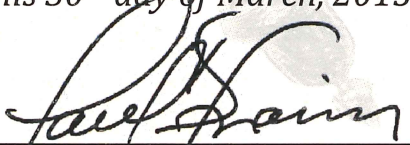

NOW, THEREFORE, I, PAUL D. FRAIM, Mayor of the City of Norfolk, do hereby proclaim May 11-14, 2015 as the

in the City of Norfolk, and urge all citizens to join in the celebration and observance of this occasion and rejoice in the competition of our senior citizens.

Given under my hand this 30th day of March, 2015.
